

Board Advisory Services

Our Board Advisory Services are designed to strengthen governance, sharpen strategic direction and support leadership teams with the right structure and expertise to guide sustainable growth.

Whether you need independent oversight, advisory input or assistance establishing the right board composition, we provide tailored solutions that align with your organisation’s stage and goals.

Governance and Structure Assessment

We review your current operating model to define the board structure required for compliance, effective governance and confident decision-making. Suitable for organisations creating a board for the first time or evolving an existing structure.

Board Advisory and Meeting Facilitation

We facilitate board meetings, strengthen reporting frameworks and embed governance rhythms that support high-quality decision-making. Suitable for organisations building board capability or improving current functionality.

Board Recruitment Services

We identify, assess and place non-executive board members aligned to organisational needs. This includes specialist appointments to close compliance gaps or support industry-specific growth.

Board Member Coaching and Mentoring

A development pathway for new or existing board members to strengthen leadership effectiveness, governance literacy and contribution to board performance.
